

Members' Right to Speak at Board Meetings

Members (raised hand) will be recognized by the chairperson at the appropriate time when a particular matter is brought up by the chairperson

Address only the chairperson and speak up to three minutes only on the matter being considered at the time

Members may not attempt to engage the Board, its attorney or manager in a conversation by asking a question or multiple questions

Members may only speak once on a particular matter